ABOUT NCA

New Covenant Academy (NCA) is a private, non-profit, college-prep school established in 1999 in the urban center of Los Angeles. NCA's mission statement is to Educate, Equip, and Enable the Christian Leaders of tomorrow by providing high quality college prep instruction, spiritual guidance, mentoring, and family-strengthening support programs. NCA does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, disability, gender, religion, or income.

UNIQUE FEATURES

- Small class size by design; the average high school class is 15 students
- Students are not ranked
- Offers the prestigious International Baccalaureate Diploma Program (IB DP)
- All core classes at the high school level have been approved by the UC system and are on the a-g list
- High-tech learning environment that utilizes both traditional curriculum and LMS (learning management system) since 2008
- 99% of graduates have been accepted by at least one University of California campus; 100% to 4-year college since the founding of school
- Graduates have moved on to a variety of top tier universities and liberal arts colleges such as: Brown, Princeton, U. Penn, Yale, Air Force Academy, Cornell, Davidson, Duke, Emory, Haverford, Naval Academy, NYU, UC Berkeley, UCLA, USC, Vanderbilt, Wesleyan, Washington U. in St. Louis, West Point, etc.
- Average merit scholarships earned by senior classes is $2+ million
- NCA produces National Merit Semi-Finalists and Commendation Recipients almost every year
- NCA competes in various sports through the California Interscholastic Federation (CIF), and has won multiple state-wide academic championship awards in Wrestling, Basketball, and Volleyball
